Imagine looking forward to going to work!
Well now you can!

The Employability and Skills Group is currently recruiting for versatile Hospitality Assessors who stand out from the rest. You will coach and assess a case load of learners within the Apprenticeship and T2G programmes enabling them to achieve their Qualification. You will work autonomously, travelling within the region to different workplaces, so the ability to manage your own time is essential. An occupational background in Hospitality is needed.

We are looking for individuals with exemplary assessing skills providing resources for the implementation, maintenance and continued improvement of the company assessment strategy.

Requirements:

- D32/33 or A1 Qualifications
- Good IT skills
- Effective communication skills
- Driving Licence and Own Transport
